D. Commentary

The 5pm daily ministerial media briefing was led by the Health and Social Care Secretary, Matt Hancock, who observed that the overall downward trend in new cases and people being treated in hospital continues to be encouraging. He referred to the release of a Public Health England report following its review into how different factors have affected COVID-19 risk and outcomes. The report identified that the highest risk factors were:

- Age
- Gender
- Living in a city
- Being a person from the Black, Asian or Minority Ethnic (BAME) community

The review lists the risk factors following an examination of data currently available, but it does not contain any published recommendations as to how these disparities should be addressed. This work continues.

Rules setting out new measures designed to protect against new cases of COVID-19 being brought into the UK at its border are due to be published today (3rd June). They are intended to come into effect on Monday 8th June 2020.

The Prison Service published a COVID-19 national framework for recovery, and the Probation Service published its recovery roadmap.
