D. Commentary

There was no ministerial briefing on Sunday 14th June 2020.

Thirty-six deaths were recorded across all settings in the UK making it the lowest number since 22nd March, albeit figures tend to be lower at the weekends because of reporting delays.

From today, Monday, 15th June 2020, it is a legal requirement that anyone over the age of eleven years must wear a face covering when travelling on public transport in England. Transport operators are required to refuse entry to anyone not wearing a face covering or ask them to leave.

Yesterday, Sunday 14th June, the Transport Secretary issued the Health Protection \(Coronavirus, Wearing of Face Coverings on Public Transport\)\(England\) Regulations 2020 which set out the new requirements which are enforceable with a fixed penalty of £100 for failure to comply.

Public transport includes:

- bus or coach
- train or tram
- ferry or hovercraft or any other vessel (but not a cruise ship)
- aircraft
- cable car

Call for evidence by the Parliamentary Administration and Constitutional Affairs Committee (PACAC).

The Coronavirus Act 2020 was emergency legislation passed by Parliament on 25 March, to provide the government with the powers it wanted to tackle the Covid-19 pandemic in the UK.

PACAC has launched an inquiry to scrutinise the constitutional and public administration aspects of the Act, and is inviting views about it and associated legislation (including the Health Protection (Coronavirus, Restrictions) (England) Regulations 2020, made under the Public Health (Control of Disease) Act 1984). The online consultation period ends on Saturday 20th June 2020 and access to the consultation can be found here.
